

Miles Community College

Today's Fuels for Tomorrow's Growth

- Mobile crushing & biodiesel production facility
 - Workshops and Demonstrations
- Energy Industry training
 - Associate of Science in Biofuels -63 Credit Degree
 - Offers training in biofuels production and other related endeavors such as feedstock production and procurement and co-product marketing and use.
 - Students may also transfer to a four-year institution
 - Other short courses in progress
- Entrepreneurship – 30 credit certificate
 - Development of Small Businesses
 - Expand the Benefits of Bioenergy Growth
 - Increases Availability to Constituents
 - Increase Opportunities for Shared Resources

